

GLOBAL SUMMER PROGRAMME 2020

ECON113S ECONOMIC GLOBALISATION AND ASIA

- Instructor Name: HONG Bei Hailey
- Title: Senior Lecturer of Economics
- Email: beihong@smu.edu.sg
- Office: School of Economics, Room 5045

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course focuses on various aspects of economic globalization in general, but with specific reference to Asia. Students could learn both positive and negative aspects of the many globalization issues in Asia, such as “Choosing the Right Exchange Rate Regime for Small and Open Economies in East Asia”, “Trade liberalization and poverty in Asia” as well as “Singapore's Drive to Form Cross-regional Trade Pacts”.

B. LEARNING OBJECTIVES

The course aims to achieve the following:

- To provide students with the basic knowledge and skill to understand global economic issues in Asia such as trade, finance, factor mobility and exchange rates
- To help students understand the major issues in the Asian economy today and understand the economic benefits and problems of globalization

C. PRE-REQUISITES / REQUIREMENTS / MUTUALLY EXCLUSIVE COURSES (IF ANY)

This course does not require any pre-requisite.

E. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

All acts of academic dishonesty (including, but not limited to, plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, facilitation of acts of academic dishonesty by others, unauthorized possession of exam questions, or tampering with the academic work of other students) are serious offences.

All work (whether oral or written) submitted for purposes of assessment must be the student's own work. Penalties for violation of the policy range from zero marks for the component assessment to expulsion, depending on the nature of the offense.

When in doubt, students should consult the instructors of the course. Details on the SMU Code of Academic Integrity may be accessed at <http://www.smuscd.org/resources.html>.

F. ACCESSIBILITY

SMU strives to make learning experiences accessible for all. If students anticipate or experience physical or academic barriers due to disability, please let the instructor know immediately. Students are also welcome to contact the university's disability services team if they have questions or concerns about academic provisions: included@smu.edu.sg.

Please be aware that the accessible tables in the seminar room should remain available for students who require them.

G. INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS AND EXPECTATIONS

Class sessions are of 3-hour lectures for three times per week. Each session will involve a lecture and a discussion of readings.

Class Participation: SMU education policy requires a class participation grade in order to promote learning through critical exchange of ideas and engagement of mind. You are strongly encouraged to participate in class discussions and to ask questions to promote your understanding of the course content.

The instructor understands that each individual student has different learning strategies and that some students are shier than others. Students should therefore not feel pressured to talk just for the sake of the class participation grade. Students should also not feel pressured to keep quiet because they think that their comments or questions are "stupid". The class is a learning environment that seeks to promote your understanding of the course material and to develop your analytical skills and critical reasoning. If you have a comment or question which you think will promote your understanding or your peers' understanding of the course material, please feel free to comment or ask a question.

SMU takes student participation in class very seriously. Attendance is compulsory except for medical/emergency reasons: students should email me/TA to inform.

Group Project/Case Study: For the group project/case study, there will be 8 teams in total. Each team will be required to make a 25 to 30minutes presentation followed by a 5minutes discussion session. Each team has to evaluate another project as well.

The detailed list of topics to choose from will be distributed in class.

Midterm Examination: The midterm exam will be held in class and will be based on the topics covered in the first half of the term. Their exact format will be announced in class. There will be no make up for the mid-term exam.

Quizzes: There will be two in class quizzes in total. They are meant to help you check your process through the course. The time limit for each quiz will be 30 minutes. I do not give make-up quizzes. However, if you are officially excused by Singapore Management University because of a serious illness or family crisis or other reasons, you must contact me by email at least one week prior to the quiz to make alternative arrangements.

Final Essay Assignment: There is a final essay assignment with two essay questions. Questions will be posted on elearn one week before its due date. Students are required to upload their typed essay into elearn on time. Any late submission may face mark deduction.

H. CLASSROOM POLICIES

Students are expected to be present and attentive in class, e.g. pays attention to the instructor's exposition and to peer's comments, takes down notes when necessary.

Students are expected to make an effort to contribute to class discussions, e.g. by asking clarification questions when unclear about class content or offering some insights that promote understanding of the course material.
